

Dear colleagues

Please find a brief introduction of role players for WCVA 2012.

The venue:

The setting is the Cape Town International Convention Centre at the foot of the famous Table Mountain. Cape Town was chosen for its centrality, accessibility and outstanding facilities. Cape Town is in close proximity to many of the other major tourist attractions in South and Southern Africa. A wide variety of accommodation is available.

The organisers:

Fairfield Group was appointed as the official congress organizers with years of experience in the travel industry and event managing. They will make sure that all your questions are answered and give you a flexible tailor-made itineraries with detailed information. Professional tour guides with specialist knowledge and required language proficiency are used. They can assist with tours, whether you go in a group or want to travel on your own by supplying full route descriptions and maps. Please feel welcome to contact them with your requests and questions.

Congress Organiser responsible for scientific program and coordination

- Dr Kenneth Joubert Consulting Veterinary Anaesthesia Specialists

hypnyx@wbs.com

Congress Organiser responsible for logistical coordination, social program and trade

Dr Lynette Bester Consulting Veterinary Anaesthesia Specialists

cheyane1@gmail.com

Additional member responsible for Africa liason

Dr Brighton Dzikiti Senior lecturer University of Pretoria

brighton.dzikiti@up.ac.za

Additional member responsible for veterinary nurses and technicians

Sr Tania Serfontein

Please feel welcome to contact anyone for further information

The program:

It is viewed to build four major focus areas into the congress.

- Wildlife Immobilisation
- Anaesthesia in all species
- Regional anaesthesia and interventional procedures
- Acute and chronic pain management

We will cater for all interest groups with practical lectures and hands-on workshops in all fields.

Additional information:

We would love to welcome all delegates and industry to South-Africa and Cape Town in 2012.

This congress is not for you -

It is for your whole family.

Take some extra time and enjoy the splendour and once in a life time experience we can offer you.

Sincerely

Kenneth and Lynette